KNOW

The Fund can, in addition to its in-person attendance at induction programmes, participate in employee induction programmes virtually via Microsoft Teams, making it easy for new employees to learn about our Fund benefits and services regardless of location.

We are also available to participate in-person at wellness days, member information sessions and other workplace engagement initiatives. We value our partnership with HR teams and look forward to receiving invitations to these events, as well as your assistance in helping us connect with members at their places of work.

Together, we can ensure that members receive timely information, support and guidance throughout their membership journey.
