PRINCIPLES THAT GOVERN SHARI'AH INVESTING

Five main principles:

- Ban on Interest: According to Shari'ah law both parties need to take risk when profit is earned, therefore one cannot invest in conventional fixed interest instruments.
- Ban on uncertainty: In terms of Islamic principles the future outcome of an investment needs to be free of major uncertainty. Speculative financial instruments like options and other derivatives therefore may not be used.
- Ban on financing certain economic sectors that are deemed to be non-permissible such as non-halal meat products, gambling companies, weapon production, etc.
- Profit and loss sharing principle: Both parties to the financial transaction must share in the risks and the rewards attached to it.
- Asset-backing principle: Each transaction needs to be backed by or linked to a tangible underlying asset.

The fund adheres to the standards of the Accounting and Auditing Organisation for Islamic Financial Institutions (AAOIFI) as interpreted by the Shari'ah Supervisory Board.
